Welcome to an inspiring challenge

What is Europe Gym for Youth Challenge?

The first edition of this contest, Europe Gym for Youth Challenge (EGFY), is a test event and will take place on 12 July 2014 in Helsingborg Arena, Sweden.

Participating teams will be evaluated from some different aspects and will also be given feedback on their performance by trained choreographers. Teams can register for the challenge only, or stay for the entire 9th EUROGYM 2014 Festival.

Performance time

Maximum three minutes including entering and exit. After three minutes the music is cut off.

The music that you are going to use during your performance must be sent in to:

testevent@eurogym2014.org by the 30 of June.

Opening Parade

The opening parade will take place in Helsingborg Arena on Saturday 12 July. At least one from each country will be marching in behind their national flag. There is going to be a line-up with all of the countries together. The representatives from each country will not be on stage for so long since they need to change clothes and prepare for their acts later on.

Prize ceremony

The prize ceremony will also take place in Helsingborg Arena on Saturday 12 July. The groups are going to sit on the floor in front of the stage and wait for their prizes and their souvenir to be handed out.

After the prize ceremony there will be entertainment.

Performing area

There will be two performing areas, 14 X 14 meters each. One of them will be equipped with roller mats and the other sports floor. The performances will alternate between the two areas depending on what each group has requested.

Apparatus

The equipments that have been chosen are only going to be available for the groups during their performance.
